Citizenship! During these next few weeks away from school, consider all the ways you could help others...help a neighbor, babysit, call a friend/grandparent/cousin (actually talk to them, not text), check on the elderly (take their garbage to the curb on garbage day), make your bed, ask your parents what needs done around the house, journal about your time off. What other ideas can you come up with?

Mr. Rogers says:

"All of us, at some time or other, need help. Whether we're giving or receiving help, each one of us has something valuable to bring to this world. That's one of the things that connects us as neighbors--in our own way, each one of us is a giver and a receiver."

"Real strength has to do with helping others."

"The media shows the tiniest percentage of what people do. There are millions and millions of people doing wonderful things all over the world, and they're generally not the ones being touted in the news."

"When I was a boy and I would see scary things in the news, my mother would say to me, 'Look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping.'"
